Membership application for international membership in the IVD

The international real estate business continues to gather momentum; high investment volumes and large numbers of German real estate buyers on the international market show that the international real estate business long ago stopped being a niche product.

Real estate buyers and sellers from Germany constitute an important element of the international real estate business. More than 1.2 million Germans own a holiday home in a foreign country – and the numbers are growing. German buyers are a highly sought-after customer group abroad. The IVD is the right partner for you if you want to obtain an overview of the German real estate market, gain access to buyers and customers from Germany and position yourself as a contact partner for German real estate customers abroad.

A well functioning network is the key to success in the real estate business. International membership in the IVD provides you with such a network. Distinguish yourself from all the colleagues in your business environment with an international membership in the IVD.

All members of international real estate associations which cooperate with the IVD can become international members of the IVD (CEI, CEPI, FIABCI, NAR among others).

- I am a member in a partner association of the IVD (CEPI, CEI, FIABCI, NAR). For international membership in the IVD I pay an annual fee of 100,- $ (in addition to a one-time processing fee of 35,- $) to the IVD. This fee is renewed annually in order to maintain status as an international member. I may only use the IVD logo as long as I am an international member of the IVD and a member of the international partner organisation of the IVD. I may only use the IVD logo for real estate offers made abroad.
- I confirm that the IVD may use my company data for my entry in printed and online membership directories and data bases and store them for this purpose.
- I confirm that the IVD has the right to decide whether this international membership is extended or not. On the condition that I pay the annual membership fee invoice sent to me, my international membership will be considered as renewed.
- I conduct business with my real estate agency outside of Germany.

In signing this membership application I confirm the conditions for international membership in the IVD.
